

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Participating in an association that looks out for the interests of its members, by striving to maintain professionalism and legal work ethics in the industry, and acts as a liaison with government to improve legislation pertaining to the locksmith industry.
- Access to educational seminars and speakers on industry-related topics.
- Access to accredited ALOA seminars/courses, hosted locally, at discounted rates
- Receive information on the latest product developments through manufacturer presentations
- Access to the new BCASP website and members' chat room, supplier links and product offers, and receive your own free email address
- A chance to connect with industry peers over dinner and at our annual golf tournament

Membership Schedule of Fees

Voting members

Locksmith/Security Dealer:

Includes company plus one licensed employee	$305
Additional licensed employee to a max of $120	$30ea
(Employee = person employed as a licensed locksmith/security technician)

Institutional / In-house Locksmith A person doing locksmith/security work strictly for one institution/organization; has no dealings with the general public and does not require a security license.	$150
--	-------

Out-of-Town Locksmith A licensed locksmith (company) residing East of Hope and North of Lions Bay, or on Vancouver Island, who is unable to attend meetings due to distance. They will have access to information and minutes provided by the Association, as well as access to the Association website.	$150
--	-------

Distributor, Wholesaler	$500
-------------------------	-------

Non-voting members

Manufacturer, Industry Representative	$200
---------------------------------------	-------

Optional

Prepaid dinner for 5 Meetings @ $35 per person Dinner fees can also be paid per meeting, at the door, by cheque or cash	$175
--	-------